Table Grace

Lord, as we glance to the left or right or look across the table, we see another human being who bears the imprint of your hand. May we never give up hope or treat indifferently or unfairly any person we meet. Give us a fresh vision of what Rotary calls us to be that we may move our world a step closer to what you would have it be. Receive, Lord, our undying gratitude for the gift of life. Amen.

Frederick E. Christian

August 2 Program: Mary Gay Scanlon

By Rich Shimko

Mary Gay Scanlon, a female politician, talked to us about this year's "The Year of the Woman" in American politics. As Mary Gay pointed out, this is not the first "Year". For example, the 1992 election, which followed the Clarence Thomas/ Anita Hill hearings, was also called the "Year".

Mary Gay said one of the reasons that a lot of women are running for office this not is not so much anger at the President but the perception by women that if Trump could be elected President then the bar is not very high and they could be elected also.

The Pledge of Allegiance

Four Way Test:

Of the things we think, say and do:

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOOD WILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all Concerned?

Guests:

Gabby Richards (with speaker), Andy Chapman (Heather's son), Jon Kopsick (Joe's guest) & Mikael Nordstrom (Central Delco Rotary).

July 19 Program: Mary Gay Scanlon (continued from front)

Personally, she said she was encourage to run by Leanne Krueger-Braneky, one of the New Hampshire woman senator (I didn't catch which one), and Ed Rendell. In response to a question, Mary Gay said, based on her experience on the school board, women in an elected body change the focus of discussion slightly – less on issues such as taxes and construction and more on humane issues such as nutrition and personnel.
