Table Grace

By Frederick E. Christian

We remember with gratitude those who have given “that last full measure of devotion” that we might enjoy freedom. Grant that we may never accept our heritage lightly but live each day with thankful hearts.
Bless now, Lord, our meeting together and your provision for our daily needs. Amen.

4 Way Test

Of the things we think, say or do

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Last Meeting Summary

After the talk by Andy Rosen, Manager of the Swarthmore Farmers Market, a Rotarian commented, “I am disappointed when I can’t get to the Farmers Market on Saturday morning. I always meet someone I know when I go there.” According to Andy, this was one of the goals for the establishment of the Farmers Market. In an era when people are becoming more isolated socially (at least as far as personal contact), Andy and his predecessor, Marty Spiegel, are to be commended for managing the Market over its initial years. The Farmers Market is a place where Swarthmoreans can meet, and of course, shop. It gives us the opportunity to buy directly from producers. As detailed in the separate article, the Farmers Market has more vendors than ever before.

Phillies Night 07-31-2019

Marty and Andy have succeeded in growing the Farmers Market just about every year. The number of visitors in 2018 was 19,000, which works out to be an average of 670 every Saturday. Andy said some of the new products sold at the market this year include pasta, pickles, goat diary, bread and various snacks to eat while you are shopping.

Our Vision and Mission

The Swarthmore Farmers Market was created to be THE Saturday morning food, art, and community gathering destination for people from Swarthmore and surrounding communities. We connect the community with local farmers and food artisans in a mutually beneficial way. By supporting the sale of a variety of fresh, locally grown food as well as hand crafted items sourced from local ingredients, we enhance the quality of life in and around Swarthmore and contribute to a vibrant and thriving town center. Our aim is to support the health and well-being of residents and promote a robust regional food system to better ensure access to fresh food for everyone!

See you at the market!
