Table Grace

During these weeks, scores of our young people have been launched into the world that we call "the world of the professions and of business."

Grant that we who receive them may not dim their high hopes and lofty ideals. Guide us, Lord, that we may give them a vision of service woven out of the fabric of Rotary's goals.

Father, receive our grateful thanks for the gifts of this hour.
Amen.

Rev. Dr. Frederick E. Christian

Last Meeting's Program: Amy Sue Barston and Her Students (photos on reverse)

By Rich Shimko

Amy Sue Barston, who is a Swarthmore resident, brought a band of students to entertain us with cello music. Who would have thought a cello quartet could sound so great? Students and teacher were Katina (age 8), Maya (12), Daniel (16), and Amy (20?). It was wonderful to see the progression of skills with age. It was also fun to observe Amy's mother hen-like style with the younger students. They played music from Bach to the Beatles, and included a modern piece by Mark Summer that Amy said reignited her interest in playing the cello when she was in college.

Speaker: Continued from Front

Amy made a pitch to start music lessons young so playing an instrument becomes as natural as learning a language. She mentioned someone who has 1 and 3 year old children and has started them on 1/32th and 1/16th scale cellos. I wonder if she would consider us Rotarians to be too old to start? Probably.
