Last Meeting's Program: Silvertones & CADES

The holiday spirit was in the air as we arrived for our traditional Christmas meeting at CADES. We were greeted by Bill Benson, CADES's Executive Director, and the excited, smiling CADES student greeters. Rotarians were gifted with the traditional CADES seasonal artwork. We learned that Bill is retiring after 37 years. Many Rotarians have a connection to CADES including most recently George Whitfield, who is on its Board. Numerous Rotarians honored Bill during Happy Dollars, noting that he will be sorely missed.

Also, per tradition, we were entertained by the Strath Haven High School Silvertones. John Shankweiler, the Director, performed his magic including the CADES students, Rotarians, and Silvertones in a rousing version of Jungle Bells. The Silvertones then sang their own version, which was a little more jazzy and a lot more musical. Other audience or chorus songs included Silent Night, Deck the Halls, and my favorite, Carol of the Bells. Finally, I ate a bunch of cookies, also as is traditional.
