Table Grace

Thank you, Lord, for another evidence of your endless provision for our deepest needs:
for food and friendship and the need to give in same measure what you have first given us, the freedom to live a fuller life.

Accept our special thanks for the gifts of Rotary and for these blessings around these tables
which come from your hand.
Amen.

Frederick E. Christian

Last Meeting's Speaker: Keith Reeves

Public opinion regarding incarceration has been going in circles throughout my lifetime.
Our speaker Keith Reeves, was on target with the current phase. In the 60's the view was rehabilitation. When the public decided we were too soft on criminals we decided to lock them up and throw away the key. Now our attitude seems to be becoming less harsh, although perhaps the motivation this time is not forgiveness but wanting to save money.

Keith Reeves, a former student of Gudmund Iveresen, is now the Chair of the Political Science Dept. at Swarthmore College. Keith reviewed the shockingly high rate of incarceration in the U.S. that we all have been hearing about the last few years. For example, the U.S. has

The Pledge of Allegiance

Four Way Test: Of the things we think, say and do:

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOOD WILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all Concerned?

World of Work Day:

"Are you in good hands?"

Speaker: Continued from Front

5% of the world population but 25% of the world's prison population. He described a promising class he teaches at Chester prison which is made up of college students and inmates. Keith has three policy recommendations: 1) invest in high quality early childhood education; 2) address the high school drop out rate; and 3) create more work opportunities in the inner-city. Good goals but not ones I've heard discussed in any recent presidential debates.
